Prieš Avinėlio sostą nusilenkę,
mes meldžiame su gailėsčiu didžiu:
tegu tava rūstybė mus aplenkia,
Tu neatmesk nužemintų širdžių!

Visas pasaulio nuodėmes nuplovei,
krauju ant kryžiaus aukuro sruvai.
Nėra ribų nei galo tavo šlovei,
Tau – KURS ESI, kurs būsi ir buvai!

Easter message from Father Pierangelo Paternieri

Dear faithful of the cultural communities. Easter this year can only be an Easter of peace. Around and near us, there is war with its deaths, its violence, its destruction, people on the run, especially women and children, who are also arriving in our city, in our Church of Montreal. Ukraine, Yemen, Syria, South Sudan, Ethiopia and many other countries are at war now, in all there are more than 20 countries at war in the world now. These are wars that demand hospitality for individuals and families, like any war that alienates and destroys homes, forcing these brothers and sisters to leave their land. This hospitality and welcome commits everyone to help these people, despite the politics which, as we can see, is often incapable of organizing and structuring this welcome. A welcome that requires protection, promotion and inclusion, in order to get out of the urgency in which welcoming remains too often. We must build a new model of city and citizenship. Refugees, migrants and asylum seekers prophetically push us to create and to build a living, synodal Church, where walking together leads me in the life of my brother, to build a new world where the supremacy of fraternity is at home. Only in Christ do we find true peace, without compromise, based on justice, truth and solidarity. I wish everyone an Easter lived intensely and spiritually, aware that our joy will be marked by the deafening noise of a mad and meaningless war. I wish an Easter that will bring the joy of endless peace to all mankind. Happy Easter !
